A GOSPEL REFLECTION

In Jesus' day, leprosy included several skin diseases and was understood as a punishment from God. Sufferers of the disease were separated from the community and not allowed to publically worship with the community. It was the duty of the priests to declare the person healed of the disease and thus allow the person to return to society and regular worship in the temple. Encountering Jesus and acting on his instruction in faith brought healing to the 10 lepers and restored unity with society. Yet only one, a non-Jew, returned to Jesus praising God. Today, ask yourself, "What damages my relationship with God? Am I willing to respond to Jesus in faith and be restored? Like Naaman and the leper do I praise God for my many blessings?"

En los tiempos de Jesús, la lepra incluía muchas enfermedades de la piel y era entendida como un castigo de Dios. Los que sufrían de esta enfermedad eran separados de la comunidad y no se les permitía hacer culto públicamente con la comunidad. Era el derecho de los sacerdotes declarar a la persona sana de la enfermedad y por lo tanto, permitirle que volviera a la sociedad y a practicar su culto en el templo. Encontrar a Jesús y actuar de acuerdo a su instrucción en la fe sanó a 10 leprosos y restauró la unidad en la sociedad. Aun así, sólo uno que no era judío, volvió a Jesús alabando a Dios. Hoy, pregúntese a sí mismo(a), "¿Qué daña mi relación con Dios? ¿Estamos dispuestos a responder a Jesús en la fe y ser restaurados? Como Naamán y el leproso, ¿alabamos a Dios por nuestras muchas bendiciones?"

CATHOLIC SOCIAL TEACHING

Today's Gospel opens with the disciples requesting that Jesus increase their faith. For Jesus, faith is a gift that leads to service and that service is always in support of life! This Sunday we all pray for the flame of faith and zeal that will give us the courage to stand with and all whose lives are threatened by violence: the unborn; the death row prisoner; civilians caught in wars and conflict. Does our faith help us to see every life as precious in the eyes of God? In what areas should we ask God to increase our faith?

El Evangelio de hoy comienza con los discípulos pidiendo a Jesús que les aumente la fe. Para Jesús, la fe es un don que lleva al servicio y ese servicio es siempre en apoyo a la vida! Este domingo oramos por el fuego de la fe y el celo que nos dará el valor para ponernos de pie con, y por todos aquellos cuyas vidas son amenazadas con la violencia: los no natos; los prisioneros en fila para ser ejecutados; los civiles atrapados en guerras y conflictos ¿Nos ayuda nuestra fe a ver cada vida como preciosa en los ojos de Dios? ¿En qué áreas debemos pedirle a Dios que incremente nuestra fe?

In their statement on Forming Consciences for Faithful Citizenship, the U.S. Catholic bishops remind Catholics, "We are called to bring together our principles and our political choices, our values and our votes, to help build a better world" (no. 14). In Texas, the voter registration deadline is October 11. If you are not registered or have moved recently, please visit the county Voter Registrar's Office. We urge you to register and vote your conscience in the upcoming election. En el estado de Texas, el plazo de inscripción de votantes es el 11 de octubre. Si usted no está registrado o se ha mudado recientemente, favor de visitar la Oficina del Registrador de Votantes de su condado.
