LENTEN QUESTION

Q: Why is giving up something for Lent such a salutary custom?

A: By denying ourselves something we enjoy, we discipline our wills so that we are not slaves to our pleasures. Just as indulging the pleasure of eating leads to physical flabbiness and, if this is great enough, an inability to perform in physically demanding situations, indulging in pleasure in general leads to spiritual flabbiness and, if this is great enough, an inability to perform in spiritually demanding situations, when the demands of morality require us to sacrifice something pleasurable (such as sex before marriage or not within the confines of marriage) or endure hardship (such as being scorned or persecuted for the faith). By disciplining the will to refuse pleasures when they are not sinful, a habit is developed which allows the will to refuse pleasures when they are sinful. There are few better ways to keep one's priorities straight than by periodically denying ourselves things of lesser priority to show us that they are not necessary and focus our attention on what is necessary.

Ashes to Easter Lenten Mission

With the Lord there is mercy and fullness of redemption. We can help make things new with small, yet joyful sacrifices. The works of mercy are charitable actions by which we come to the aid of our neighbor. With continued generosity to the Ashes to Easter Lenten Mission Campaign, local missionaries are able to instruct, advise, console and comfort the poor in the mission areas they serve. Please be generous.

Las obras de misericordia son acciones caritativas por las cuales acudimos en ayuda de nuestro prójimo. Con generosidad continua hacia la Campaña Misionera De las Cenizas a la Pascua, misioneros locales son capaces de instruir, dar consejo y consolar a los pobres en las áreas misioneras en las que sirven. CATHOLIC SOCIAL TEACHING

In this Sunday's readings we hear God's promise of spirit and life. We do not have to remain entombed by fear, selfishness, jealousy, greed or any other evil that kills God's life in us. Jesus passed through suffering and death so that we might have abundant life. What is the new life God is calling us to experience? What tomb do we need to leave in order to live in God's freedom and fullness of life?

En las lecturas de este domingo escuchamos la promesa de Dios de espíritu y vida. No tenemos que permanecer sepultados por el miedo, el egoísmo, la envidia, la ambición o cualquier otra maldad que mata la vida de Dios en nosotros. Jesús pasó por el sufrimiento y la muerte para que pudiéramos tener vida abundante ¿Cuál es la nueva vida que Dios nos está llamando a experimentar? ¿Qué tumba debemos de abandonar para vivir en la libertad de Dios y en la plenitud de la vida?

A GOSPEL REFLECTION

The raising of Lazarus in today's Gospel is the last of seven signs that manifest God's re-creation made present in Christ. We hear Jesus say, "I AM the resurrection and the life." In response, Martha, and we proclaim, "I have come to believe that you are the Christ ..." Do we believe Christ brings new life someday or that new life is life with Christ now? Jesus calls Lazarus from the tomb and all that binds him as a sign to all disciples. How are we experiencing new life through the Lenten disciplines of prayer, fasting and Christian service? What tomb is Jesus inviting us to leave behind?

El levantamiento de Lázaro en el Evangelio de hoy es la última de siete señales que manifiestan la re-creación de Dios que se hace presente en Cristo. Escuchamos a Jesús decir "YO SOY la resurrección y la vida". En respuesta, Martha, y nosotros proclamamos, "Hemos creído que tú eres el Cristo..." ¿Creemos que Cristo trae vida nueva algún día o que la vida nueva es con Cristo ahora? Jesús llama a Lázaro de la tumba y de todo lo que lo ata, como una señal para todos los discípulos ¿Cómo estamos experimentando la vida nueva a través de las disciplinas cuaresmales de la oración, el ayuno y el servicio Cristiano? ¿Qué tumba nos está invitando Jesús a que dejemos atrás?

THIS WEEK IN RCIA we will discuss: The Moral Life. We meet on Tuesday at 7PM in the Day Chapel, all are welcome! For more information, contact Kevin Pasnik at kevin.pasnik@gmail.com or 512-585-0307.
