THE HOLY TRINITY

The mystery of the Holy Trinity is the central mystery of the Christian faith and life. God reveals himself as Father, Son and Holy Spirit. The doctrine of the Trinity includes three truths of faith. First, the Trinity is One. We do not speak of three gods but of one God. Each of the Persons is fully God. They are a unity of Persons in one divine nature. Second, the Divine Persons are distinct from each other. Father, Son, and Spirit are not three appearances or modes of God, but three identifiable persons, each fully God in a way distinct from the others. Third, the Divine Persons are in relation to each other. The distinction of each is understood only in reference to the others. The Father cannot be the Father without the Son, nor can the Son be the Son without the Father. The Holy Spirit is related to the Father and the Son who both send him forth. All Christians are baptized in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit. The Trinity illumines all the other mysteries of faith.

El misterio de la Santísima Trinidad es el misterio central de la fe y vida cristiana. Dios se revela a sí mismo como Padre, Hijo y Espíritu Santo. La doctrina de la Trinidad incluye tres verdades de fe. Primero, la Trinidad es Una. No hablamos de tres dioses sino de un solo Dios. Cada una de las Personas es completamente Dios. Son una unidad de Personas en una naturaleza divina. Segundo, las Personas Divinas son distintas una de la otra. Padre, Hijo y Espíritu Santo no son tres apariencias o modos de Dios, sino tres personas identificables, cada una totalmente Dios de una manera distinta de las otras. Tercero, las Personas Divinas están en relación una con las otras. La distinción de cada una solo se entiende en referencia a las otras. El Padre no puede ser Padre sin el Hijo, ni tampoco puede el Hijo ser Hijo sin el Padre. El Espíritu Santo está relacionado con el Padre y el Hijo, son ambos quienes lo envían. Todos los cristianos son bautizados en el nombre del Padre, y del Hijo, y del Espíritu Santo. La Santísima Trinidad ilumina todos los otros misterios de fe.

CATHOLIC SOCIAL TEACHING

This Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity invites us to enter into the mystery and dynamism of our Triune God. Our God is not an abstract force, but three persons so united in love that they are One. We are baptized into that dynamic love and now God's life and breath are ours. We are challenged by this feast to let God's love transform us more fully so that it pours out of us in all our words and actions. Such love enables us to be freed from fear and to lead others to that freedom. How can we give witness to this freedom this week, especially as we approach the Fortnight for Freedom?

Esta solemnidad de la Santísima Trinidad nos invita a entrar en el misterio y el dinamismo de nuestro Dios Trino. Nuestro Dios no es una fuerza abstracta, sino tres personas tan unidas en el amor que son una. Estamos bautizados en un amor dinámico y ahora la vida y el aliento de Dios son nuestros. Esta festividad nos reta a dejarnos ser liberados del miedo y guiar a otros hacia la libertad ¿Cómo podemos ser testigos de esta libertad esta semana, especialmente mientras nos acercamos a la Quincena Por La Libertad?

A GOSPEL REFLECTION

Most of us are familiar with John 3:16, "God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him might not perish but might have eternal life." The Trinity is divine relational love among three united but distinct persons. The Trinity reveals who we are called to be as people of God. We are called into a loving relationship with God and one another. The Trinity desires to save through restored relationship, which is salvation. Which are the relationships in our life that need work?

La mayoría de nosotros conocemos la lectura de Juan 3:16, "¡Así amó Dios al mundo! Le dio al Hijo Único, para que quien cree en él no se pierda, sino que tenga vida eterna". La trinidad es amor divino de la relación entre tres unidas pero distintas personas. La Trinidad revela quiénes somos llamados a ser como personas de Dios. Estamos llamados a una relación amorosa con Dios y entre nosotros. La Trinidad desea salvar a través de la relación restaurada, la cual es la salvación ¿Cuáles son las relaciones en nuestra vida que necesitan trabajo?

Hospitality at Mass: A Key to Good Stewardship

For many individuals and families alike, summer means travel. And summer travel may mean new visitors to our parish for weekend liturgies. How we greet and provide hospitality for our guests says a lot about our practice of good stewardship.

Providing hospitality to strangers is a hallmark of Christian stewardship. In the Gospel of Matthew good stewards were commended for their hospitality: "I was a stranger and you welcomed me" (Matt. 25:35). Saint Benedict directed his followers to receive guests and travelers as if they were Christ. Extending hospitality is especially important when it comes to welcoming visitors who may be attending Mass at our parish for the first time.

There is a lot of anecdotal evidence suggesting that the ability of a first-time visitor to have a meaningful experience of Christ in the liturgy is directly impacted by the warmth of the welcome extended by the local worshipping community. When people say hello, the worship experience is enhanced. A warm welcome is part of evangelization, work necessary in a church's mission to help people discover or renew their faith in Christ.

How do we treat the unknown person who walks by us in church, or who sits next to us at Mass? Do we ignore them? Talk around them? Look at them and say nothing? Do we take the initiative to greet them, smile, extend a warm handshake?

Remember, we are Christ's ambassadors (2 Corinthians 5:20). Our actions and reactions toward visitors at Mass communicate who we are and who we represent. Let us take time to welcome visitors to our parish this summer. Welcoming gestures, however small, will not only have a positive impact on visitors, they will make us more hospitable ambassadors of Christ.

La Hospitalidad en la Misa: Una Clave de la Buena Corresponsabilidad

Para muchas personas y familias, el verano significa viaje. Y viaje de verano puede significar nuevos visitantes a nuestra parroquia para las liturgias del fin de semana. Como saludamos y proveemos hospitalidad a nuestros visitantes, dice mucho acerca de nuestra práctica de la buena corresponsabilidad.

Proveer hospitalidad a los extraños es un sello de la corresponsabilidad cristiana. En el Evangelio de San Mateo los buenos corresponsables fueron elogiados por su hospitalidad: "fui forastero y me recogisteis" (Mateo 25:35). San Benedicto instruyo a sus seguidores para recibir a invitados y viajeros como si ellos fueran Cristo. Extender la hospitalidad es especialmente importante cuando se trata de recibir visitantes que tal vez asisten a misa a nuestra parroquia por primera vez.

Hay muchas evidencias anecdóticas que sugieren que la habilidad para que un visitante de primera vez tenga una experiencia significativa de Cristo en la liturgia, es impactada directamente por la calidez de la bienvenida extendida por la comunidad de culto local. Cuando las personas dicen un "saludo," la experiencia del culto es mejor. Una cálida bienvenida es parte de la evangelización, un trabajo necesario en la misión para ayudar a la gente a descubrir o a renovar su fe en Cristo.

¿Cómo tratamos a las personas desconocidas que caminan entre nosotros en la iglesia, o a quien se sienta junto a nosotros en misa? ¿Nosotros las ignoramos? ¿Hablamos acerca de ellas? ¿Las miramos y no decimos nada? O ¿tomamos la iniciativa de saludarles, sonreír, extender un cálido saludo de manos?

Recuerde, somos embajadores de Cristo (2 Corintios 5:20). Nuestras acciones y reacciones hacia los visitantes en misa, comunican quienes somos y a quien representamos. Tomemos un tiempo para dar la bienvenida a los visitantes a nuestra parroquia este verano. Los gestos de bienvenida, por pequeños que sean, no solo tendrán un impacto positivo en nuestros visitantes, nos convertirán en embajadores más hospitalarios de Cristo.
