ADVENT WREATH

“Customarily the Advent Wreath is constructed of a circle of evergreen branches into which are inserted four candles. According to tradition, three of the candles are violet and the fourth is rose. However, four violet or white candles may also be used” (Book of Blessings 1510).

The rose candle is lit the third Sunday of Advent, for this color anticipates and symbolizes the Christmas joy announced in the first word of the Entrance Antiphon: “Rejoice” (Latin, Gaudete). For this reason the Third Sunday is also called Gaudete Sunday, and rose color vestments are permitted.

The Advent Wreath represents the long time when people lived in spiritual darkness, waiting for the coming of the Messiah, the Light of the world. Each year in Advent people wait once again in darkness for the coming of the Lord. His historical coming in the mystery of Bethlehem, His final coming at the end of time, and His special coming in every moment of grace.

~This information was obtained from EWTN’s website. EWTN and USCCB websites contain other helpful information about Advent traditions.

LA CORONA DE ADVIENTO

“De costumbre la Corona de Adviento se construye de un círculo de ramas de Cedro y cuatro velas dentro. Según la tradición, tres de las velas son violetas y la cuarta es color de rosa. Sin embargo, cuatro velas violeta o blancas se pueden utilizar también” (el Libro de Bendiciones 1510).

La vela color de rosa se enciende el tercer domingo de Adviento, este color anticipa y simboliza la alegría de Navidad anunciada en la primera palabra de la Antífona de la Entrada: “Alégrese” (latin, Gaudete). Por esta razón el tercer domingo se llama también domingo Gaudete, y se permiten vestiduras de este color.

La Corona de Adviento representa el largo tiempo en que la gente vivió en oscuridad espiritual, esperando la venida del Mesías, Luz del mundo. Cada año en este tiempo la gente espera en la oscuridad la venida del Señor, no solo Su entrada histórica en el misterio de Belén, sino también Su venida final al fin de los tiempos, y Su venida especial en cada momento de gracia.

~Esta información se obtuvo del sitio web de EWTN. El sitio web de EWTN y la de USCCB contienen información útil acerca de tradiciones del Adviento.

CATHOLIC SOCIAL TEACHING

Advent invites us to watch for the coming of the Lord: to be awake and vigilant. The Lord breaks into our world and into our lives in unexpected ways, as he did in Bethlehem. Today he may come in the face, the voice, the need of a stranger, or a child, or the poor, or our own family. We place ourselves, this day and this season, in an attitude of quiet, prayerful hope-filled expectation, so that in the frantic busying of life, we will not miss the Master's coming. What can you do this week to be awake and vigilant for the Lord?

El Adviento nos invita a esperar la llegada del Señor: a estar despiertos y vigilantes. El Señor llega a nuestro mundo y a nuestras vidas de maneras inesperadas, tal como lo hizo en Belén. Hoy, Él puede estar llegando a través del rostro, la voz, la necesidad de un extraño o un niño, de los pobres, o de nuestra propia familia. Nos ponemos en este día y durante esta temporada, en actitud de silencio y quietud, en expectativa llena de esperanza y en oración, para que en medio del ruido acelerado de la vida, no nos perdamos la llegada del Maestro ¿Qué puede usted hacer esta semana para estar despierto y vigilante esperando por el Señor?

Training (Bi-Lingual) for Extraordinary Ministers Serving the Homebound

Some of the causes of suffering experienced by those who are confined to home or a residential care facility is the inability to attend Sunday Mass and receive Holy Communion. That isolation from God and weekly fellowship is often accompanied by a deep sense of loneliness. Ministers to the Sick and Homebound are sent to bridge the chasm that isolates those suffering, bringing them Holy Communion, prayer, and their simple presence. We will conduct a training session on Thursday, December 7th from 7pm-9pm in RE room 106/108. Please prayerfully discern if you are being called to this ministry. Please contact Gigi Bost gigibost@sbcglobal.net or (661)805-0109 to sign up for the session or request information.

Entrenamiento (bilingüe) para ministros extraordinarios sirviendo a los enfermos y confinados

Algunas de las causas de los sufrimientos que experimentan algunos enfermos y confinados son la inhabilidad de atender a misa y recibir la Santa Comunión. Ésta insolación de Dios y acompañamiento de hermandad semanal constantemente ocasiona una profunda soledad. Los Ministros para enfermos y confinados son enviados a unir ese abismo de insolación a los que están sufriendo; trayéndole la Santa Comunión, oración, y su simple presencia. Estaremos conduciendo una sesión de entrenamiento el jueves, 7 de diciembre de 7-9PM en el salón de educación religioso 106/108.
